WESTVIEW '95/'96

WESTVIEW CENTENNIAL
'95/'96
YEAR BOOK
SECONDARY SCHOOL

This is your yearbook.

This is your yearbook after 2 weeks

*Any questions?
So take care of it!!*

WARRANTY

If the pages in this book start to fall out, not only will they be put back together, but we will buy you the glue stick so you can have fun doing it.

Note: Your warranty expired once you opened this book.

Principal's Message

My sincere congratulations to the creative, hard working students who have put this yearbook together. With decreased resources available through school budgets, they managed to find a way that was cost effective and yet provide a memory for the Westview graduates of 1996. It is this type of initiative and drive that will be the critical factors for all those entering the larger society in the next decade and century. Visionary critical thinkers who are willing to see beyond the obvious will not only survive but will excel. I have no doubt that the graduates of Westview have been given the opportunities to develop these skills and I have seen them demonstrated not only with this yearbook but throughout the years I have had the pleasure of being here.

May I wish each graduate a happy, productive and rewarding life as they go forward to learn and make our local and global society a more inclusive, caring environment.

Westview who haunts the halls*

WESTVIEW C.S.:S.

Smile Girls!

One night of sparkling exotic beauty. An evening of prestige and glamour. Hours of preparation, astounding results. Boys.....

and girls are transformed into men and women. The music, intoxicating, changing us from careful to care free. (continued next page)

Party Time!

Smile Guys!

Young Love

*Sophistication exudes from the men. The women have never been more elegant.. The alluring aroma of flowers and musk
lingers in the air,
adding to the magic
of the night.*

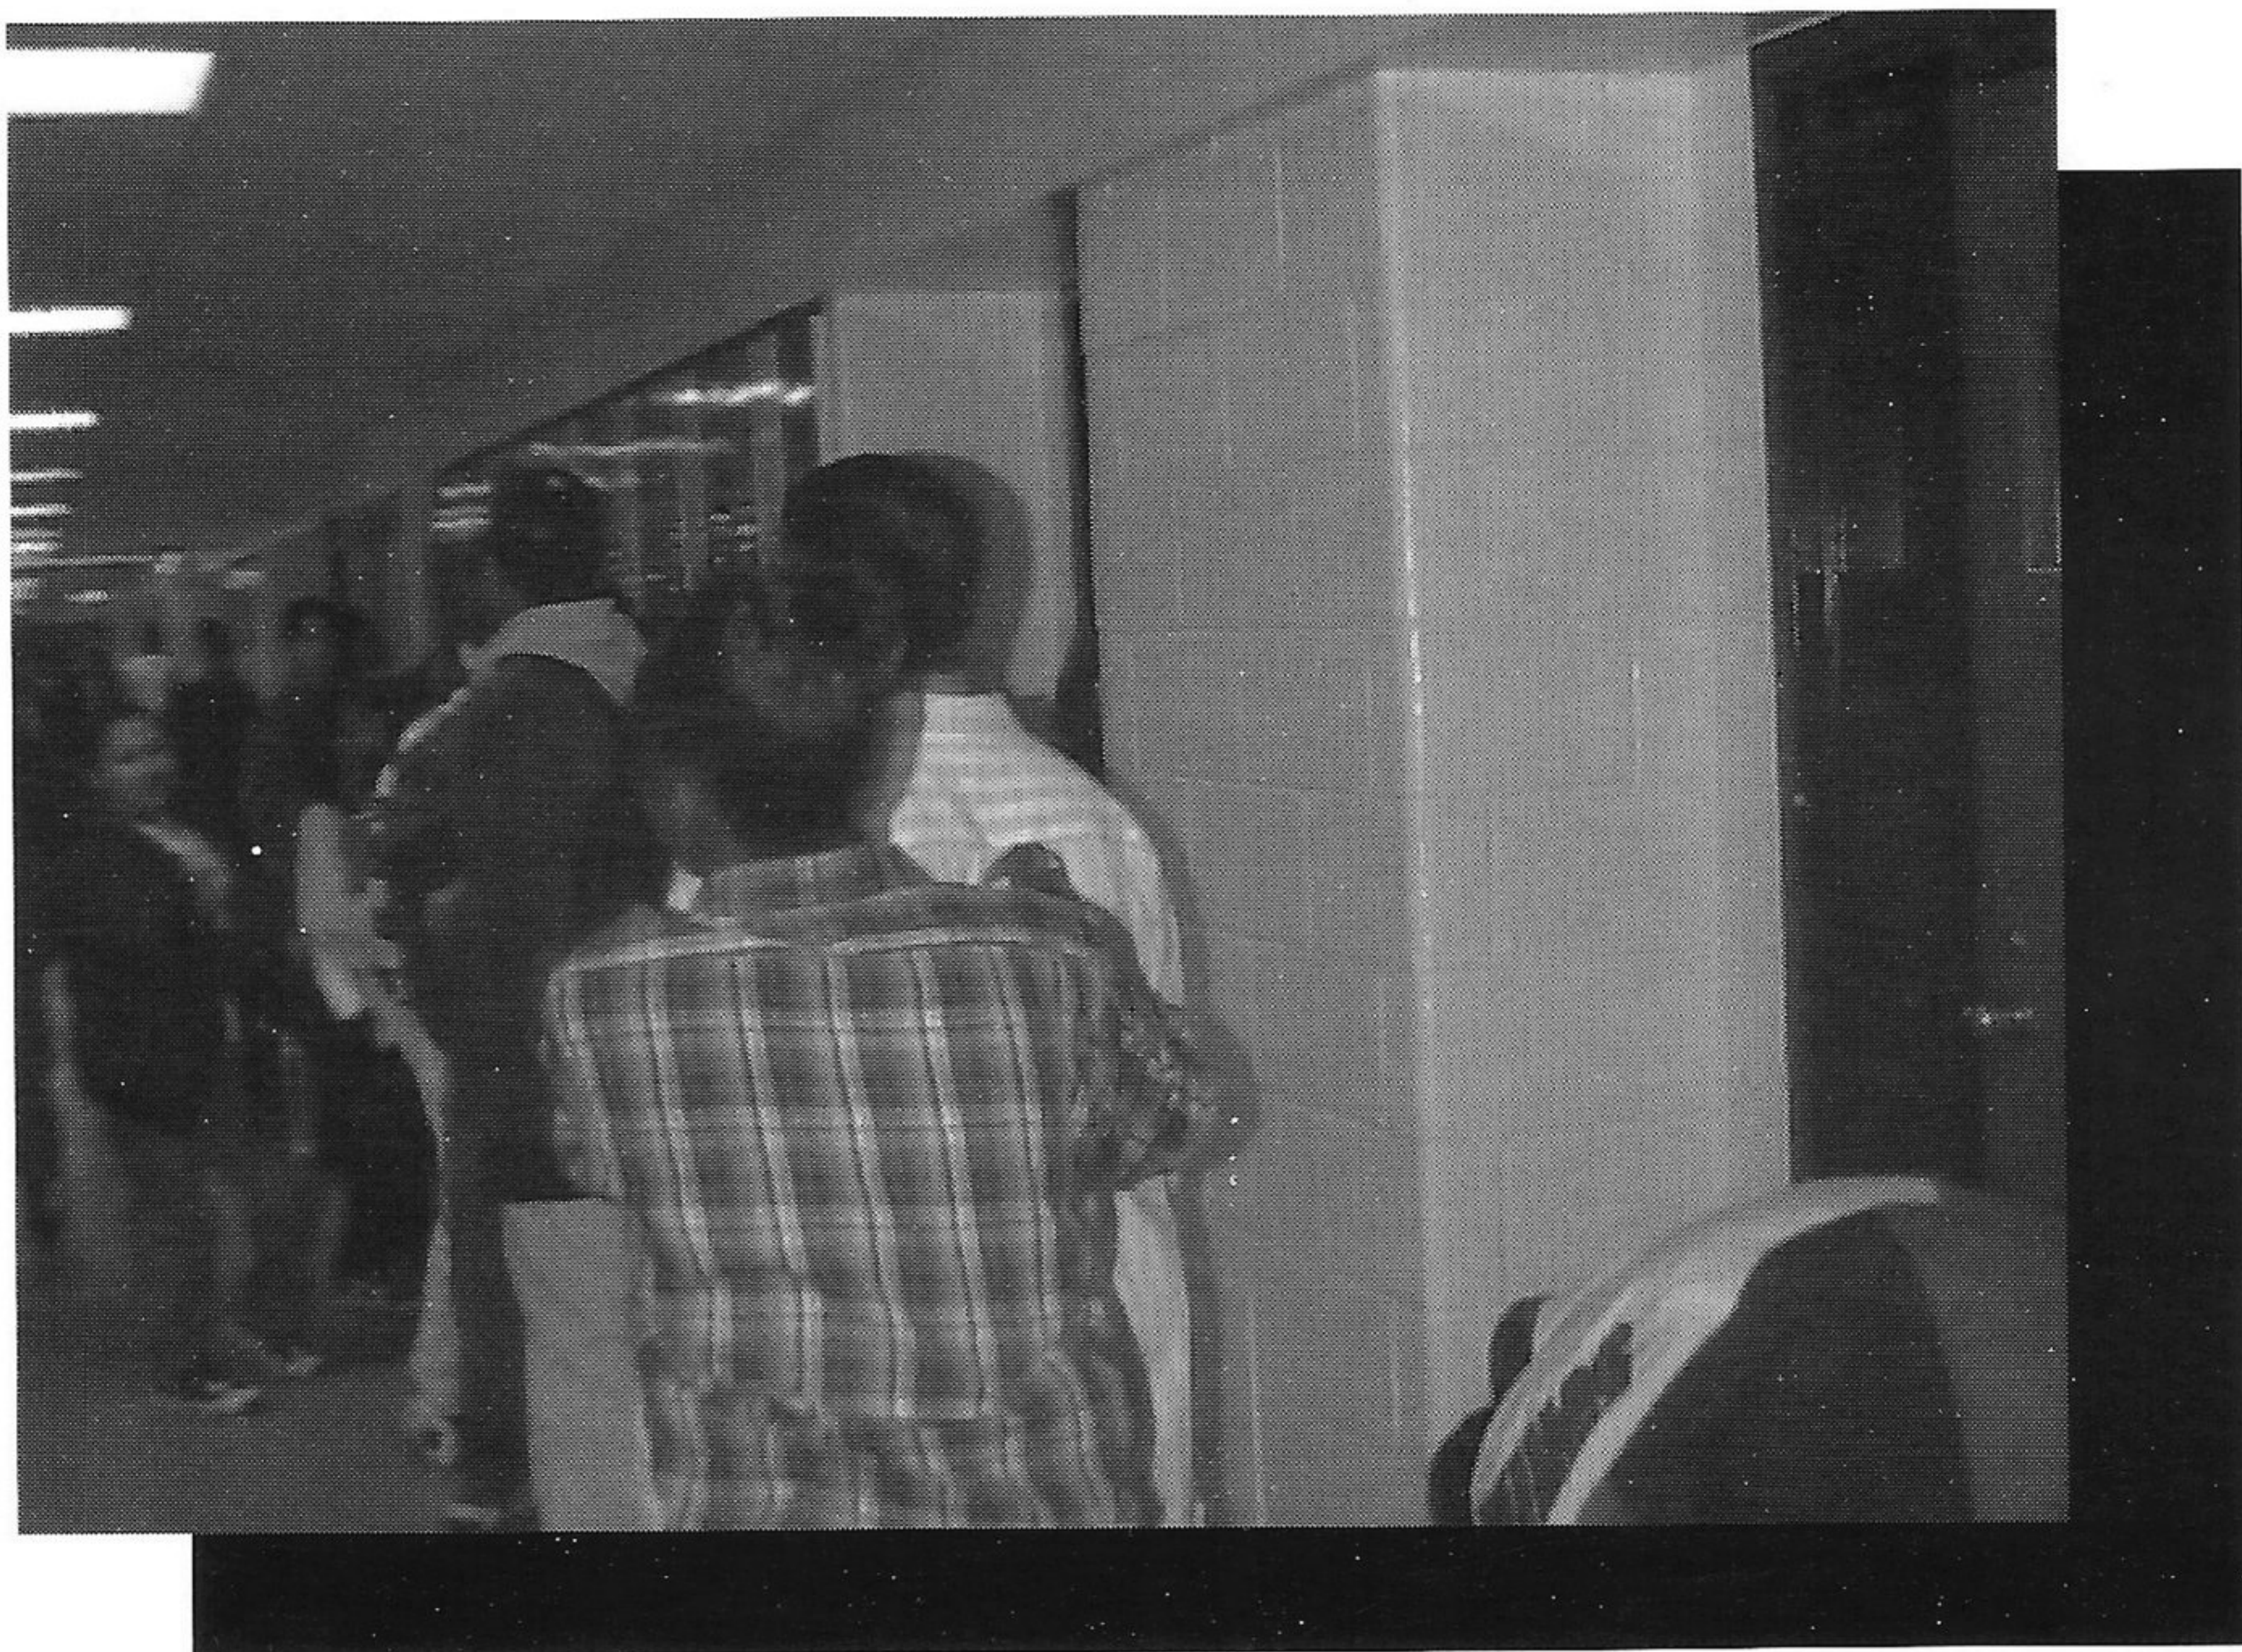

*An eclipse, as it were, quickly
shining, slowly fading, forever remembered. Crystallized in our mind by memories, feelings, and by the still images on polarized film that we will forever keep.*

Top Ten Excuses for Being Late to Class...

1. I forgot what school I go to.
2. I'm not late, you are all just early.
3. Letting the air out of your tires took longer than I expected.
4. My dog ate my alarm clock.
5. I ate my alarm clock.
6. I ate my dog.
7. I'm not late, you're just sleeping and this is all a dream.
8. Sailor Moon made me miss my bus.
9. Coming on time is for ordinary people, I am a princess.
10. I'm not late, I've been here since grade 9.

U

You stepped into my world,

Unannounced

You stole my heart,

Unexpectedly

You changed my life,

Undeniably

I will love you forever

Unconditionally

By Kathy S.

REGRETS

So many bad decisions
Everything that I've done wrong
Living with all my mistakes
Trying to move on
Maybe one day you will understand
That I never meant to hurt you
I regret what I've done
Now that I've lost you
Hoping one day you will forgive me
Until eternity I would wait
Wanting you to love me again
I know my feelings are now too late
Why I took so long to realise
How much I truly care
Is a mystery I can't solve
My unexplained despair
Now I'm here alone
As I watch you walk away
Longing to hold you forever
Wishing that you'd stay
But I have to face reality
And go on trying to forget
That you no longer love me
And I'm left with only regrets

& More Brain T

How many squares do you see in the following picture?

Hint : We're not going to give you any hints. Ha, Ha!!
Answer is somewhere in the book.

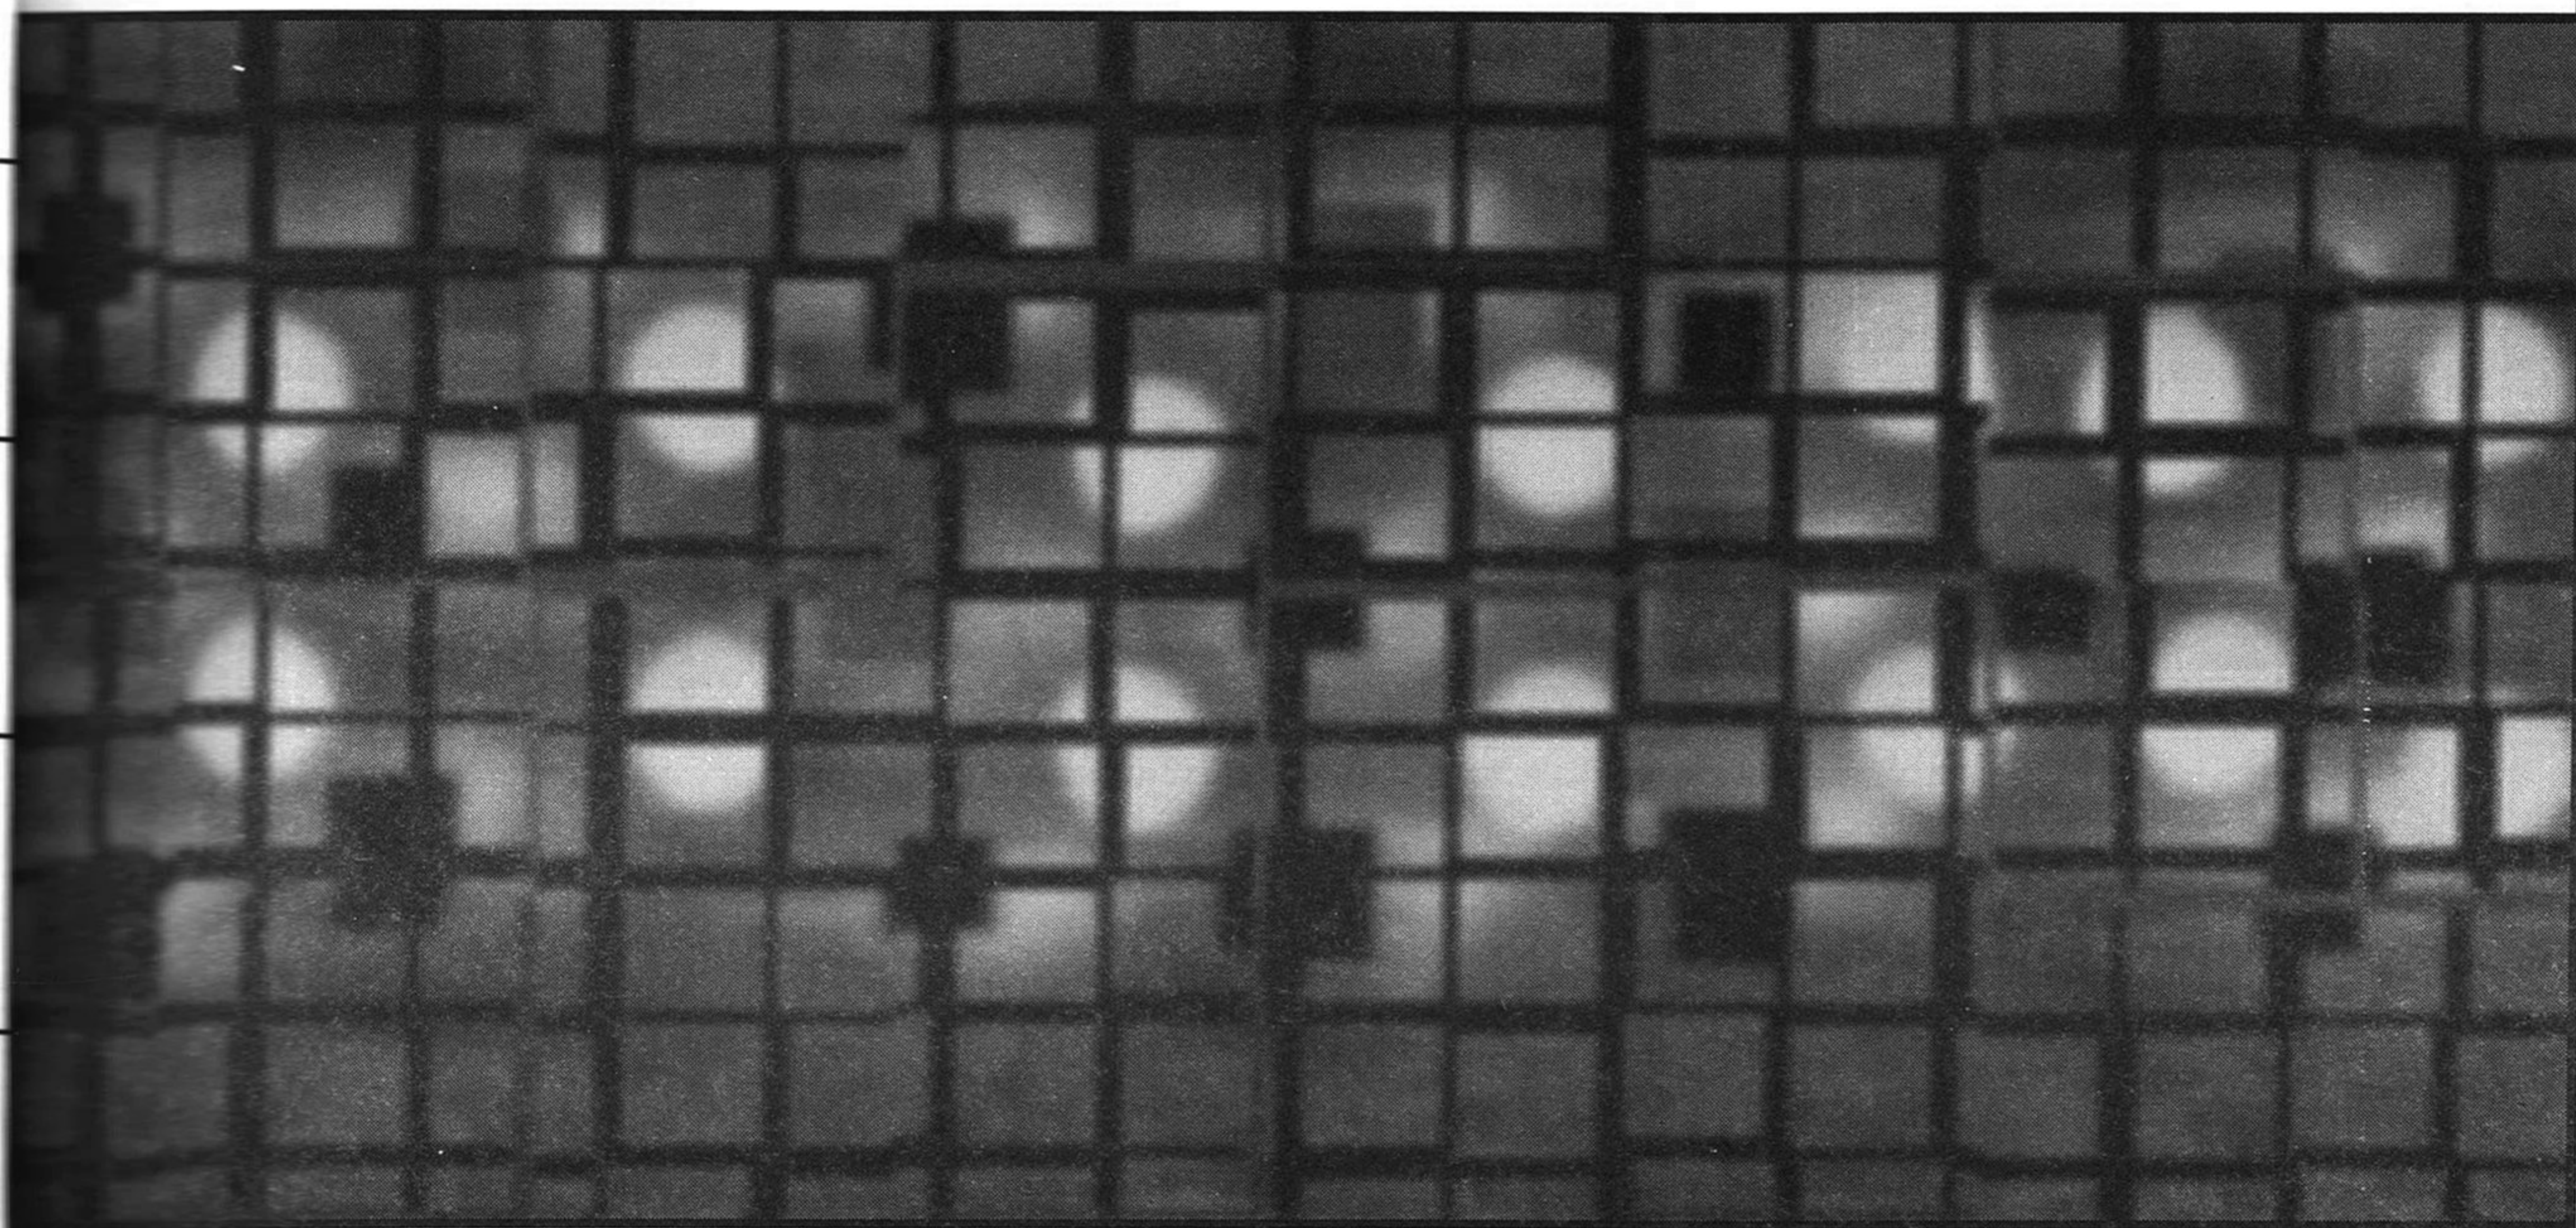

Read the following passage and give it a title which represents the main idea of the passage. The answer is somewhere in the book.

A newspaper is better than a magazine, and on a seashore is a better place than a street. At first it is better to run than to walk. Also you may have to try many times. It takes some skill but it's easy to learn. Even young children can learn. Once successful, complications are minimal. Birds seldom get too close. On a beach there is lots of room. Rain soaks in very fast. Too many people doing the same thing can also cause problems. If there are no complications, it can be very peaceful. A boat will serve as an anchor. If things break loose from it, however, you will not have a second chance.

Bransford, John D. and Marcia K. Johnson. "Contextual Prerequisites for Understanding: Some Implications of Comprehension and Recall." Journal of Verbal Learning and Verbal Behaviour. 1972, Vol 11(1). Why are you bothering to read this small print anyways? Don't you have a life?

3-D IMAGE

Can you see the hidden 3-D image? Stare at this picture in a special way to see the image.

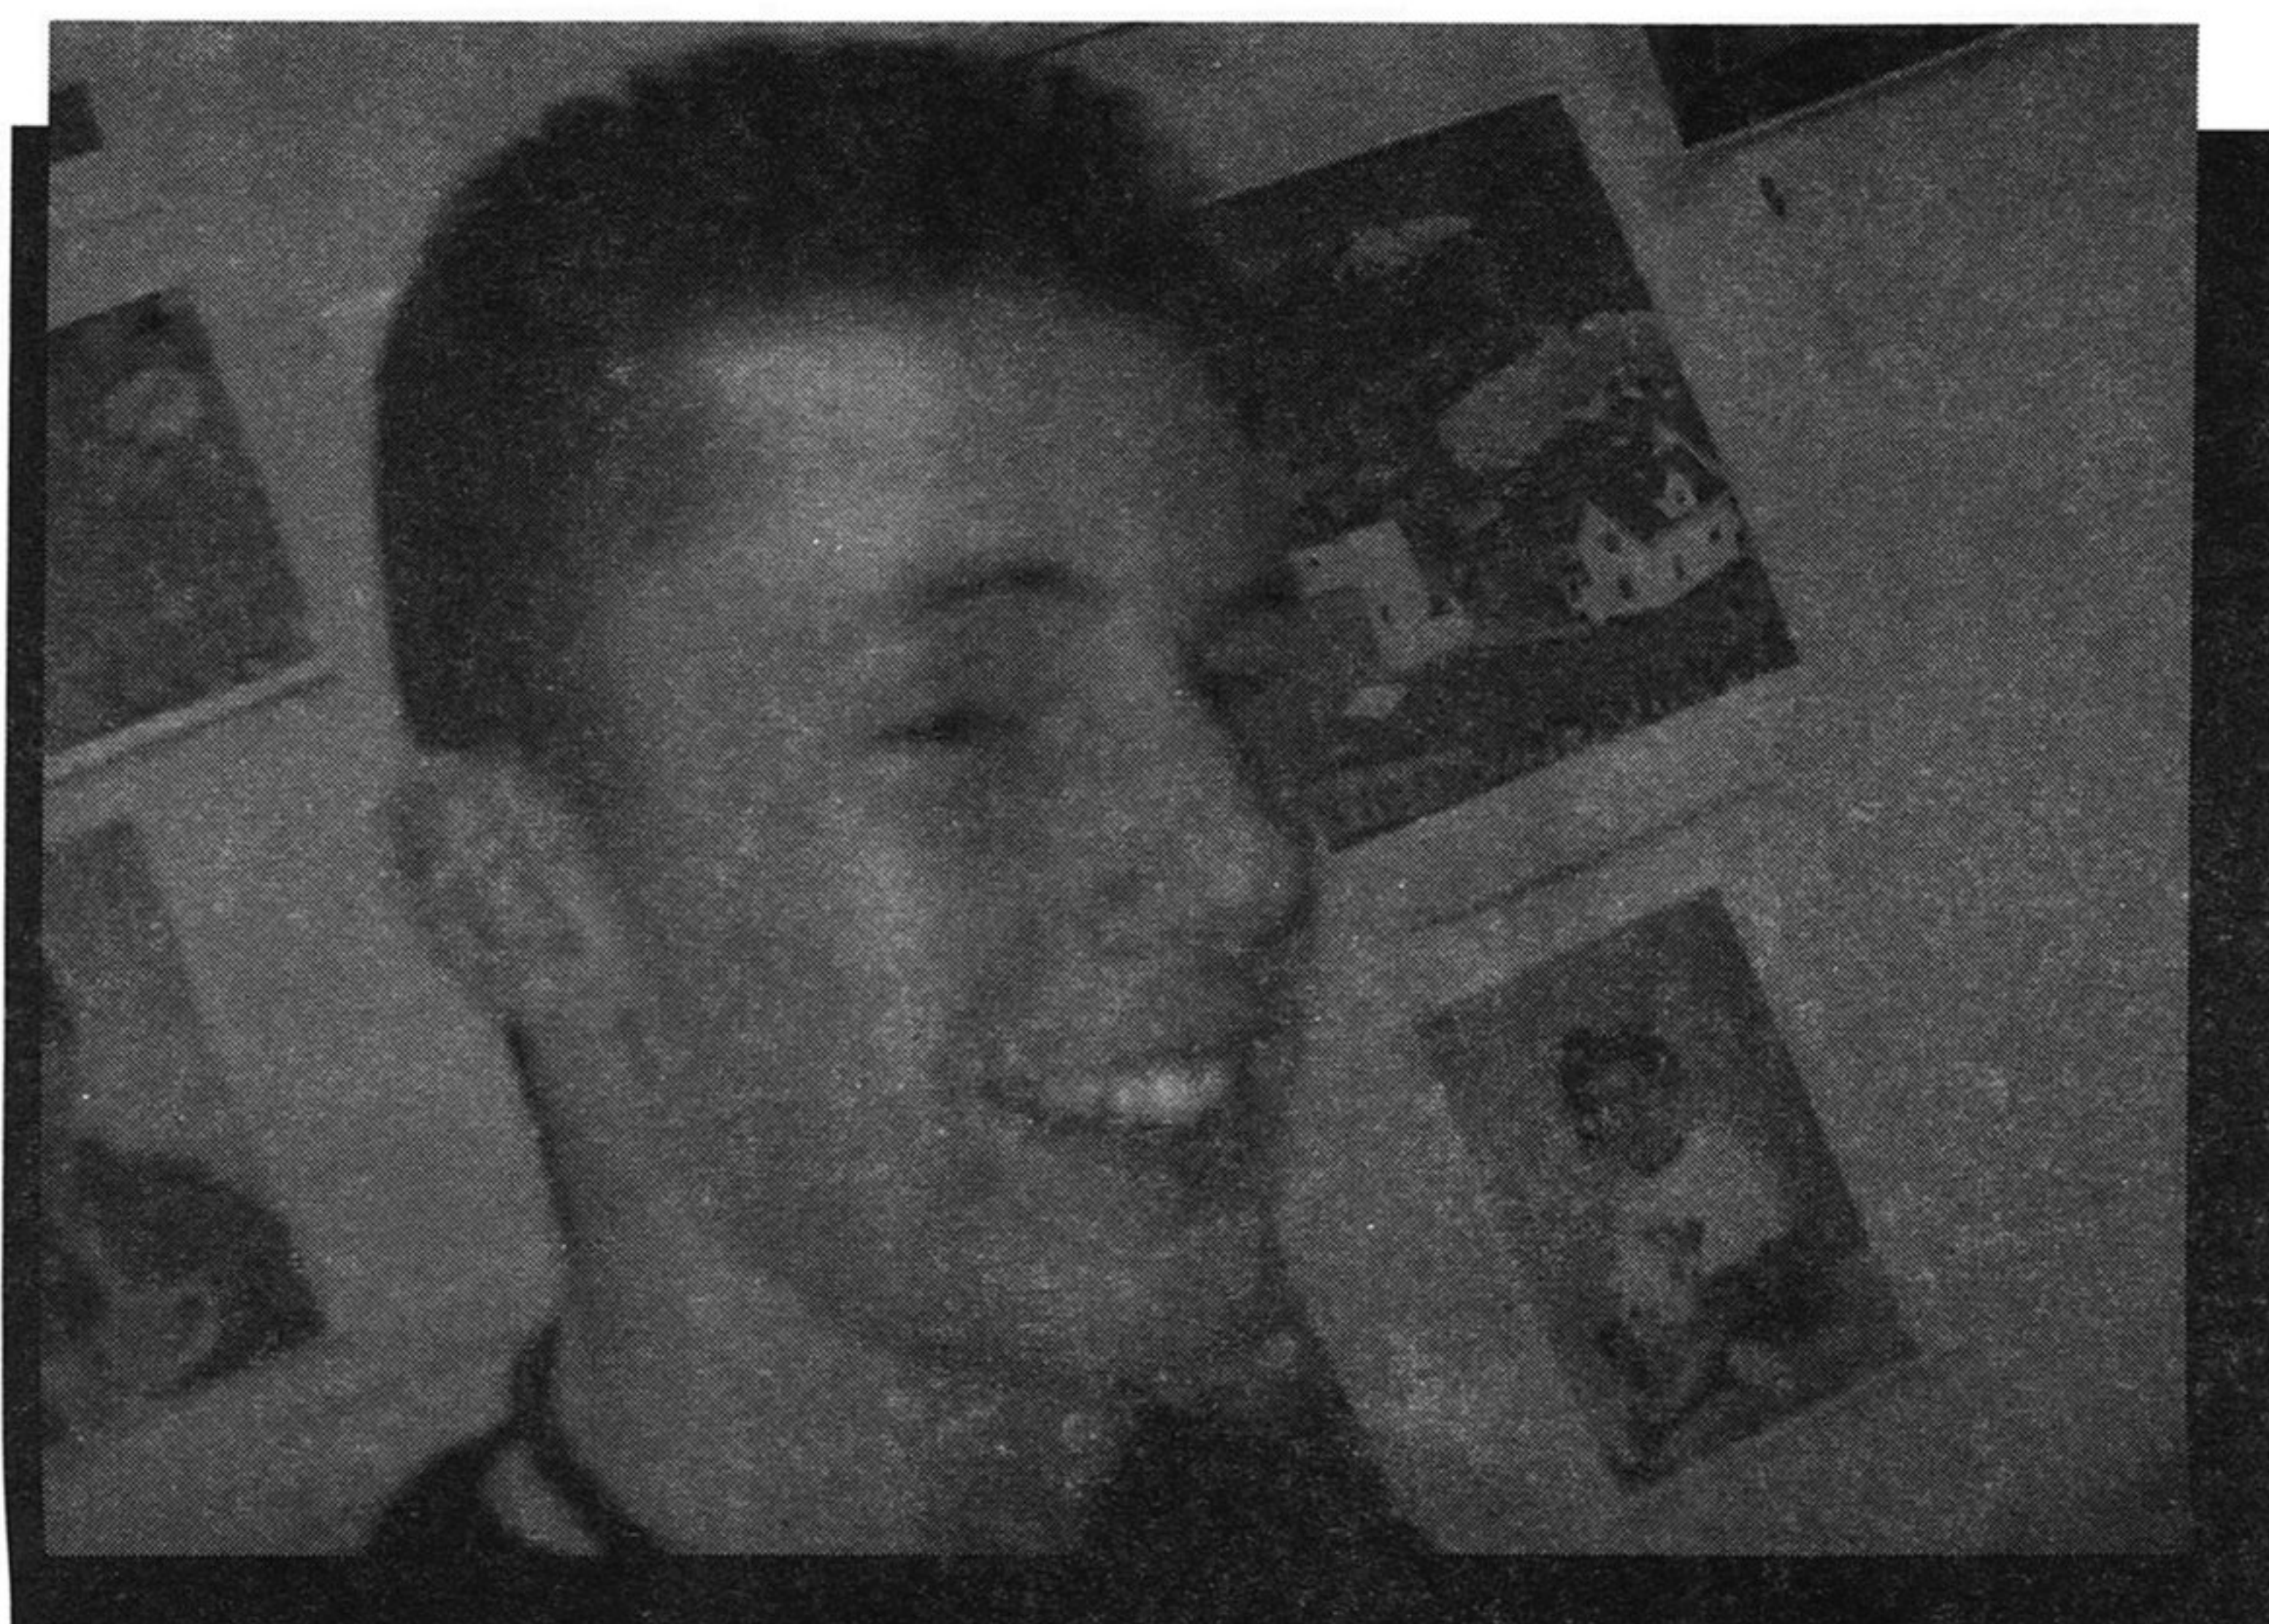

Here are a few hints to make the image easier to see.

Hint # 1: Place picture close to face, and slowly pull away.

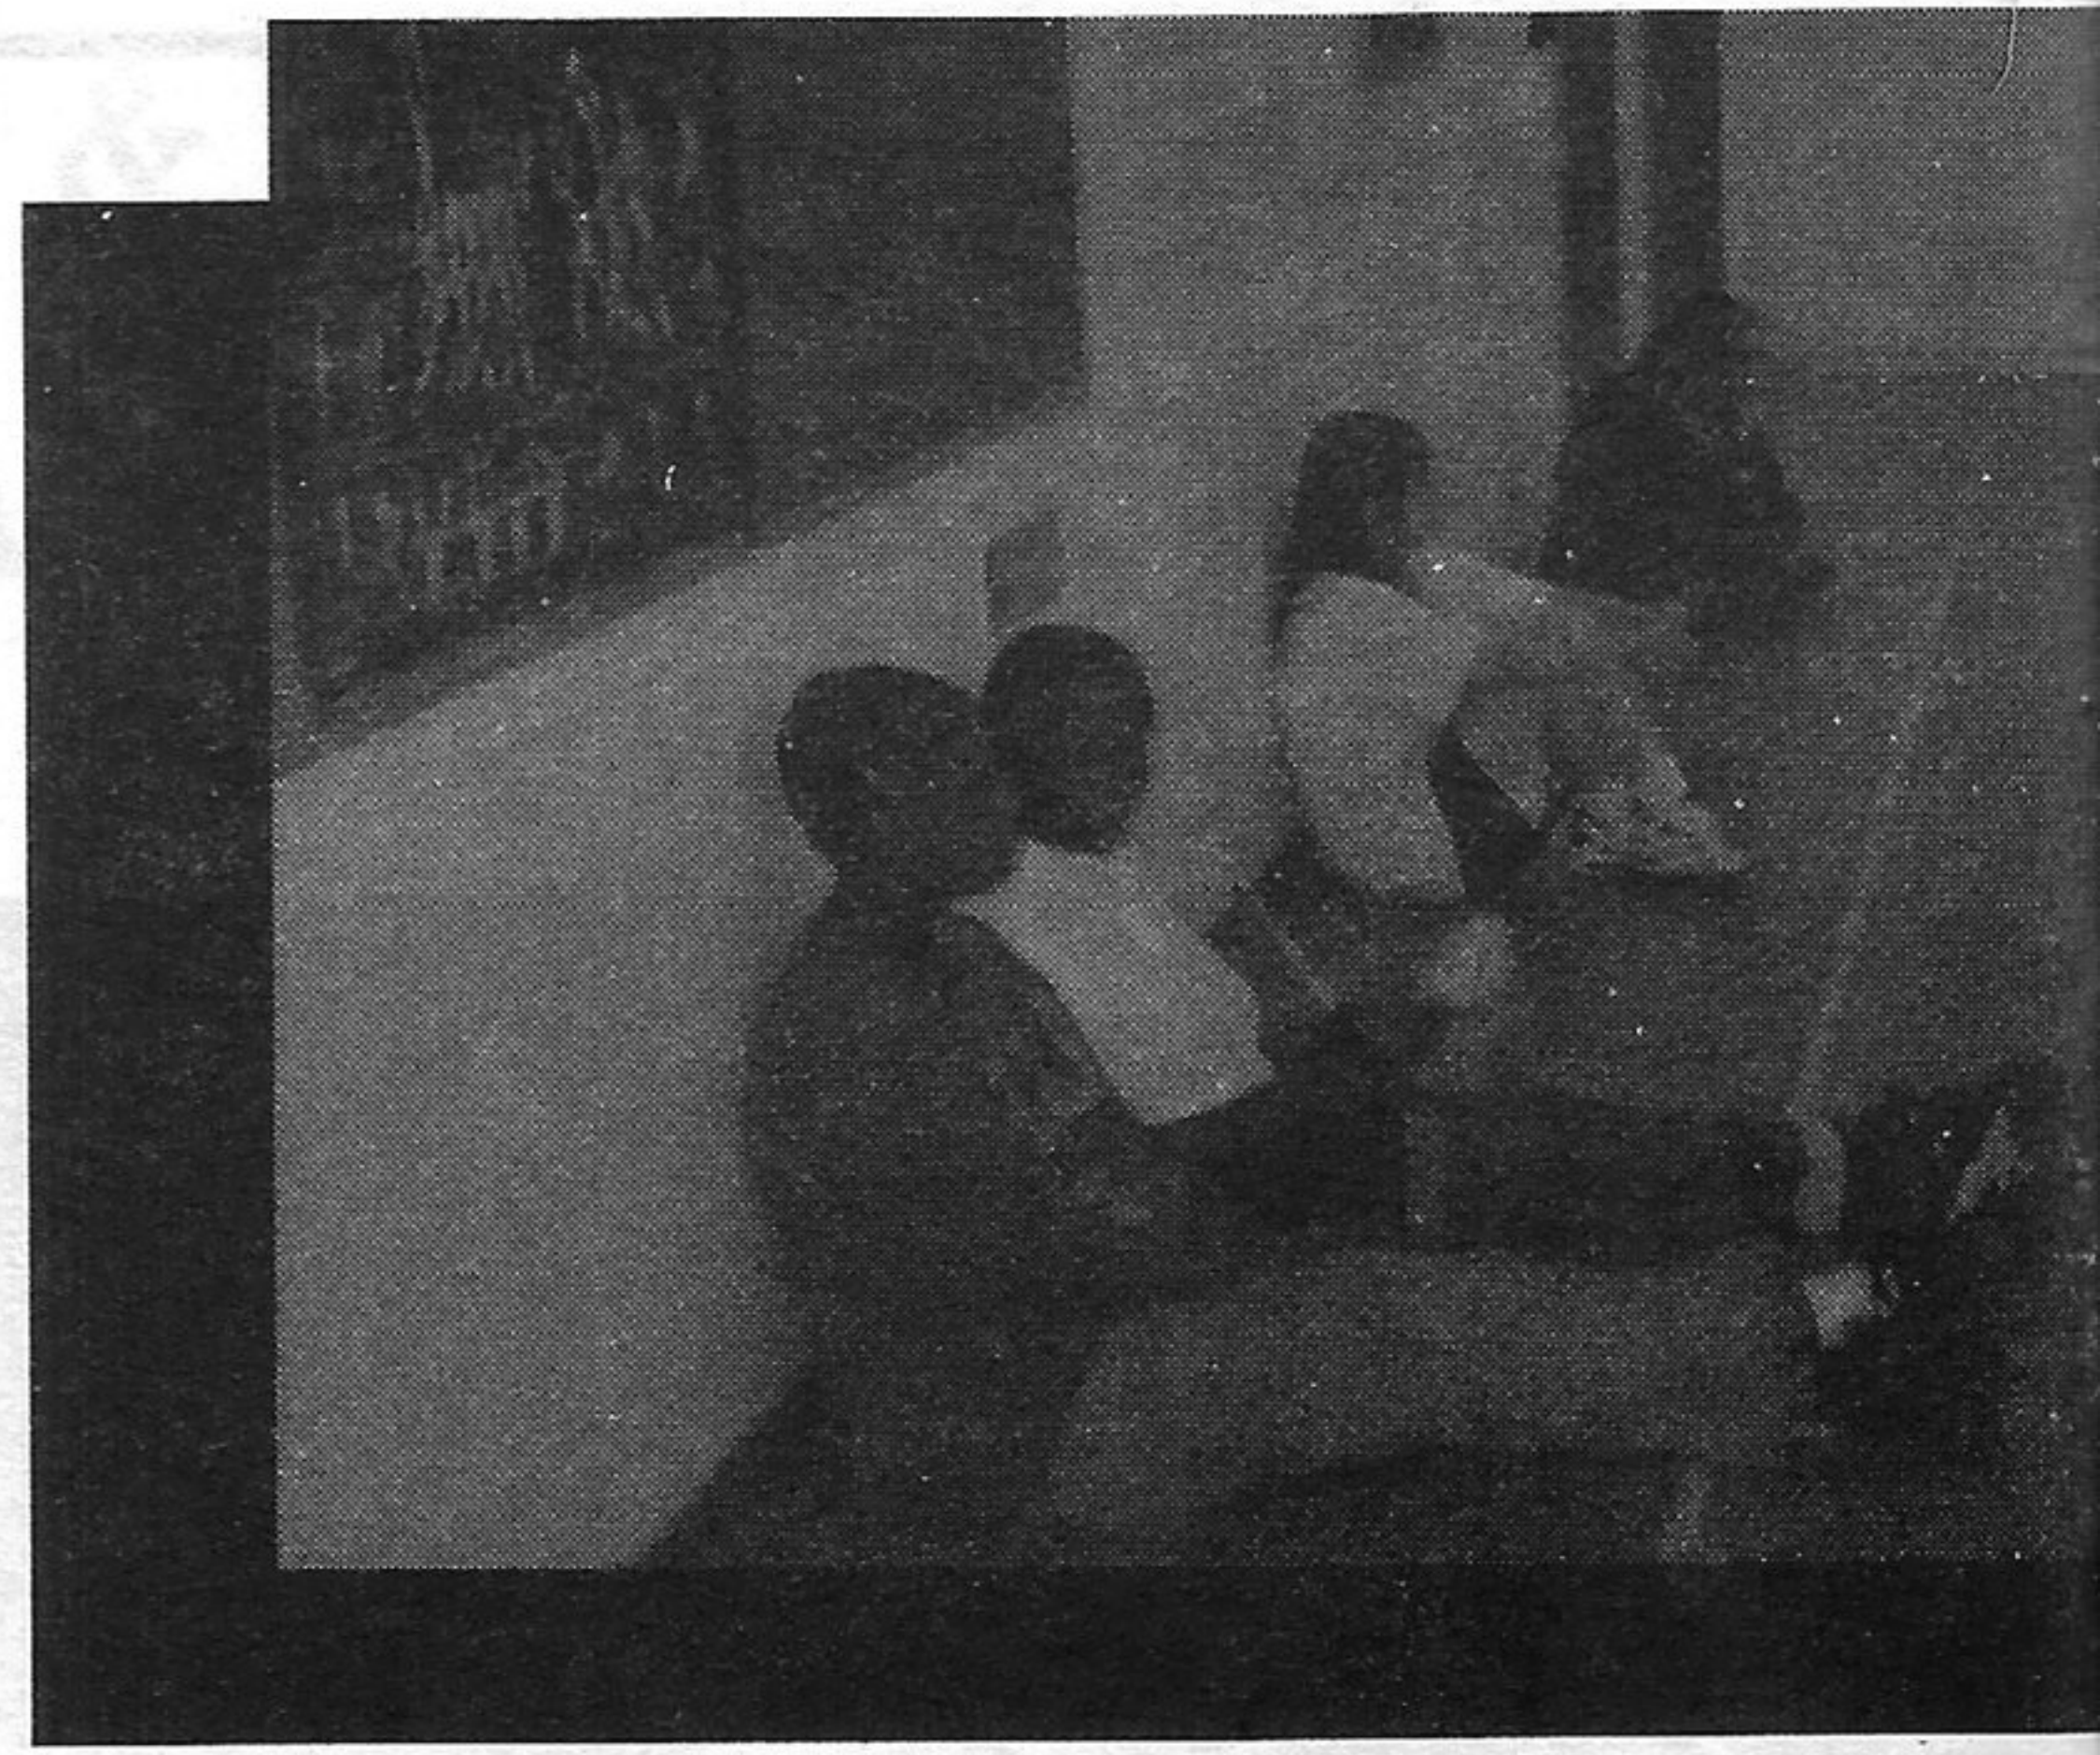

Hint # 2: Hold book at arm length and shake vigorously.

Hint # 3: Rotate book 90 degrees and make a circular motion.

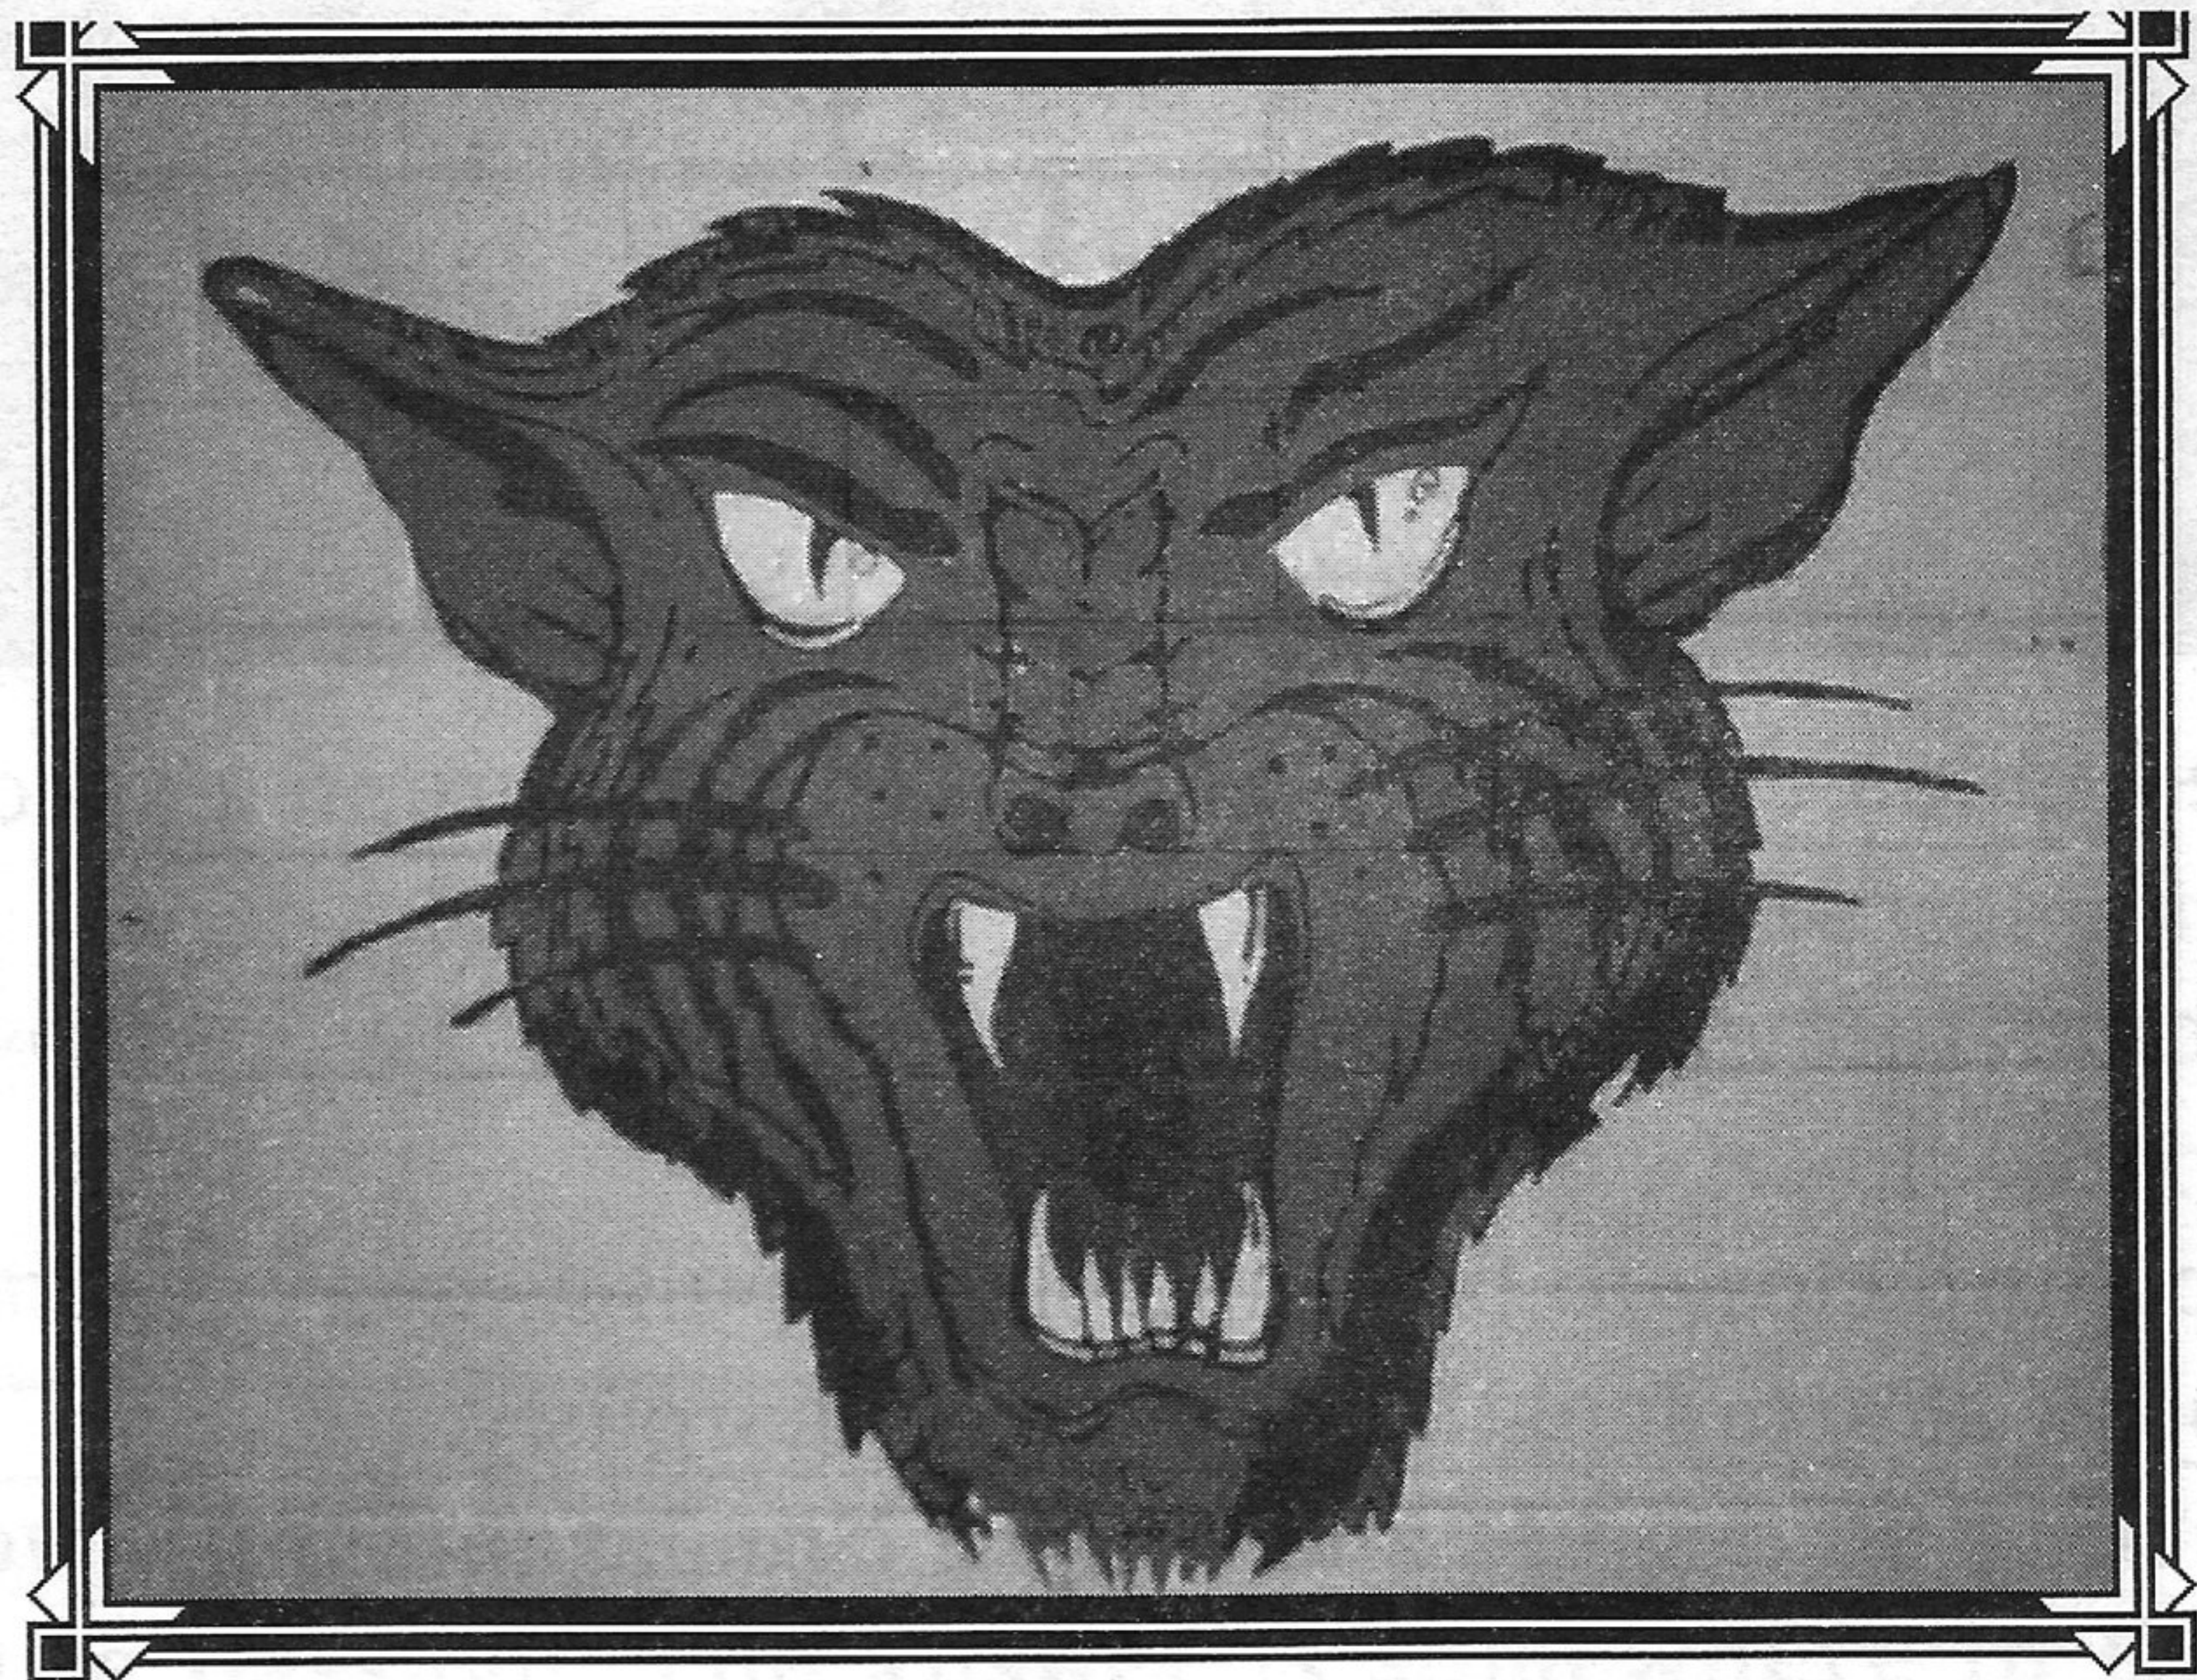

The answer is somewhere in this book.

Editors Message

The yearbook you are holding in your sweaty hands right now is the result of a lot of hard work, and we hope you appreciate it. Editing this masterpiece has left me a burnt out wreck (see background picture), but then again I was a burnt out wreck long before this. Being editor is something that means nothing to me, except maybe headaches, loss of appetite, blurred vision, and memory loss. If I had to do it all over again, I wouldn't. Just kidding. No I'm not. Seriously though, being editor has been a wonderful experience that I'll soon forget, because of that memory loss thing.

I'd like to thank my mother for feeding me. Keep up the good work, Ma! To the makers of QuarkXpress, Photoshop, QuickTake, Fotolook, and especially Find File, I love you all. Couldn't have done it without you. Thanks to Guidance, Social Science and Mr. Pugh for the computers. Thanks to Ms. Goodman and company for all their help. And thanks to Mr. Adomako for being our staff advisor. I think that's everyone.

One thing we got done was choosing my succesor to edit next year's yearbook. Every competent person I knew was graduating, but fortunately from masses of the unwashed Grade 12's came a Chosen One to lead his people from the wilderness. To this next Editor-in-Chief, I say good luck chump.

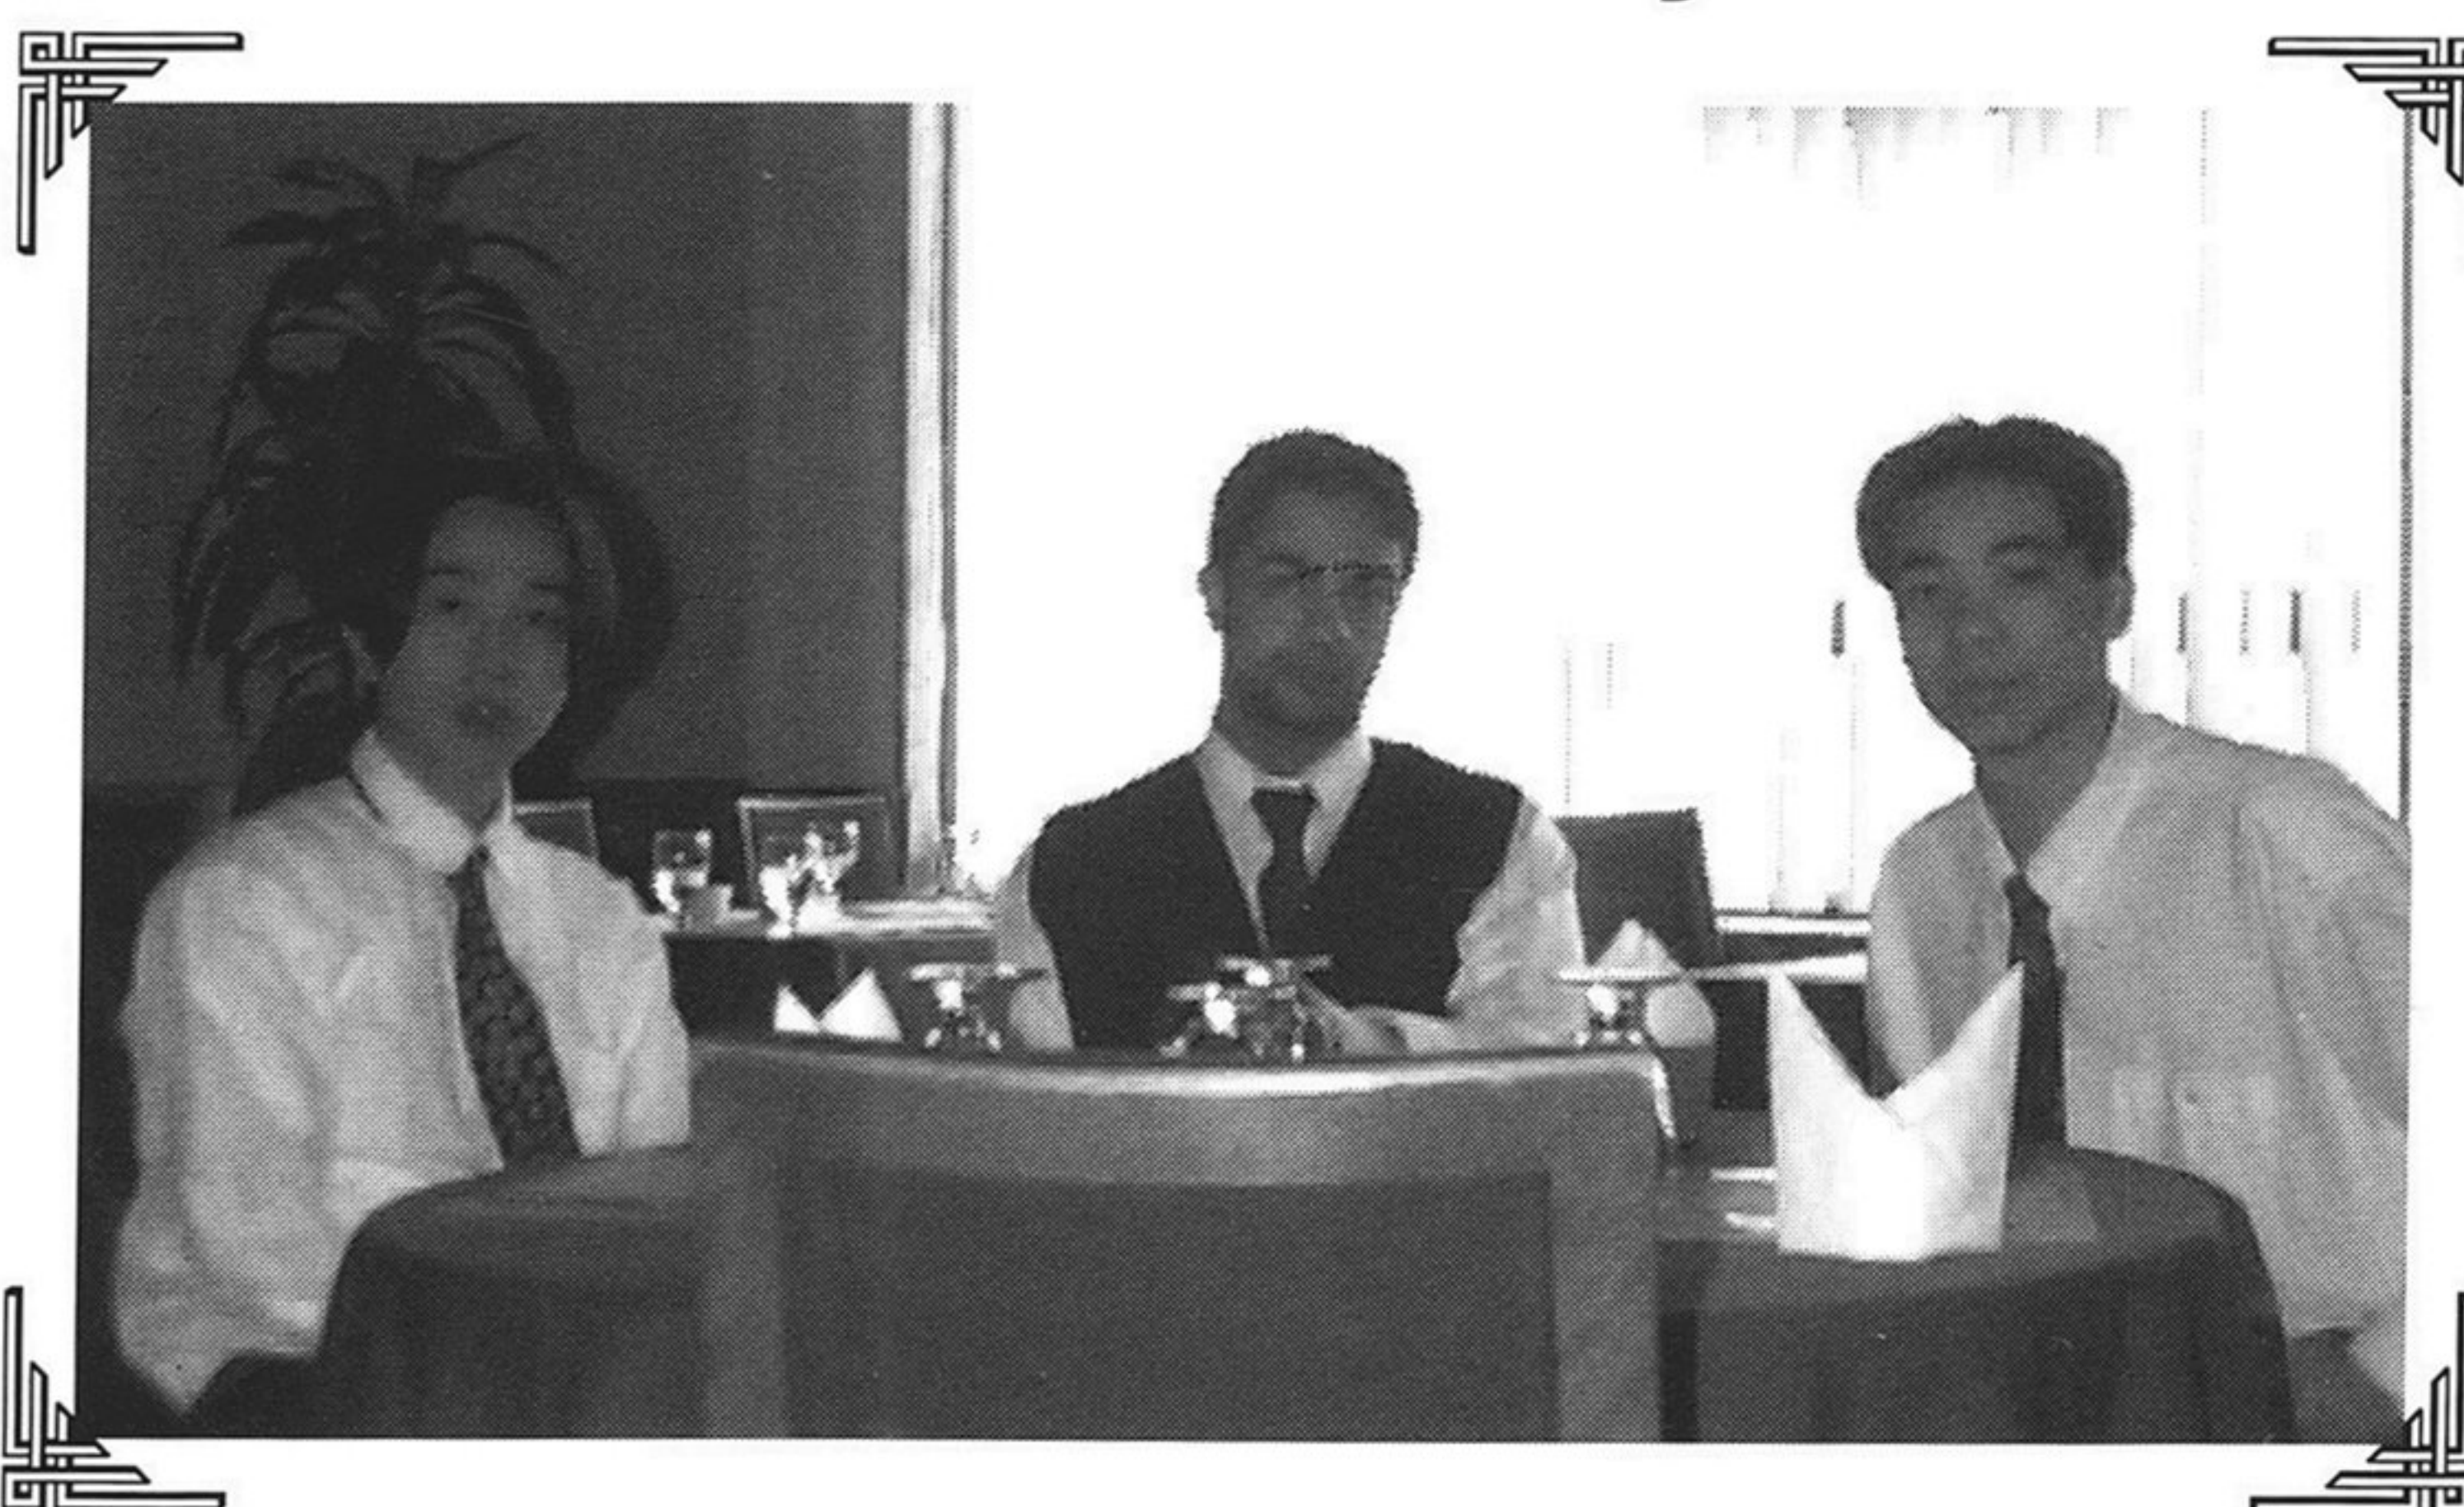

As for my staff, you're all lazy good-for-nothings.

Parting Thoughts

It's finally over! The yearbook is completed with practically every page printed in full colour or at least mine is. Thanks to the incredibly "large" yearbook committee we had this year for producing the best yearbook ever. You know what they say, "Three's a crowd". Working with no budget at all, a deadline of one month, and no dedicated computer equipment, the yearbook committee managed to conjure up a professionally published book.

Seriously, I would like to thank a few people for making this year book possible. First of all I would like to thank all the guidance counsellors who allowed us the use of their only Power Macintosh and for their support. Secondly, to all the yearbook part-time helpers for their time and effort. Finally, I would like to thank Osman and Kit who at times left me with all the workload.

That's all folks!!

Billy Luong
Layout Editor / Co - Editor

p.s. I'm free, free at last!

p.p.s. Sorry, that was the alcohol kicking in.

Final Words

Working with this year's yearbook committee has been a definite learning experience for me. I feel very fortunate to be part of this special team; however, we all know that Osman and Billy are really the lucky ones to be working with me. (That was a joke guys). Anyways, I would like to thank all the staff and students of Westview for their support through the arduous development of this masterpiece. (NOT). I would also like to thank Mr. Editor himself, Osman for making me the Chosen One, although now that I think about it, I don't really know why I'm thanking him.

Our goal was to create and sell yearbooks which would be enjoyable and memorable for the everyone at Westview. If we only sell one of a hundred copies we would be upset, yes. However, if that one copy can change the life of that one person, then we would have done our job. Not to mention that the person probably has a problem and we'll be losing oh about $2000. So, as I part from Westview, I would like.....oh wait, I just remembered I'm coming back to lead next year's team. So in the words of Jean-Claude Van Damme, "I'LL BE BACK". Hold on....that wasn't Van Damme, that was the guy from the Terminator movies, Stallone, yeah that's him.

Yearbook Wisdom

Life is hard, get a helmet

Ask not what you can do for your school, but what your school can do for you

All errors or mistakes are your fault.

Embezzlement: What we did with your money.

Did you know that you probably paid too much for this yearbook?

If you don't like this yearbook, too late, you already paid for it. Ha, Ha!!

If your picture is not in the book, it's because we don't like you.

If your picture is in the book, that still doesn't mean we like you.

Cruelty to Animals

It is time society faced up to a great injustice that has gone on too long. That this incredible cruelty could continue for so long is bad enough, but the fact that it is shown to children as a spectacle is horrifying. Yes, that is right, I'm talking about those commercials on television where you hear the taunting cry, 'Silly rabbit, Trix are for kids'. The anguish on that poor rabbits face is enough to make you want to cry. Why, someone tell me why, can't those selfish brats give up just a little bit of their precious cereal? Didn't anyone teach them how to share?
